Mrs. Khrushchev Pays Respects At Moscow Embassy

MOSCOW (AP) — Mrs. Nina Khrushchev, wife of the Soviet Premier, paid her respects to President Kennedy at the American Ambassador's residence today and emerged with tears in her eyes.

Mrs. Khrushchev went to Spaso House at the head of a delegation of the American - Soviet Friendship Society, a Moscow organization of which she is chairman. She signed the memorial book on the same page as her husband, then went inside with Ambassador Foy D. Kohler and Mrs. Kohler for 15 minutes of reminiscenses about her meetings with the President in Vienna.

She came out arm in arm with Mrs. Kohler, tears in her eyes, and said goodby.

Afterward, Ambassador Kohler said Mrs. Khrushchev expressed sympathy for Mrs. Kennedy on behalf of herself, members of her family and the friendship organization.
